Chicken Dinner

Just 4 more school days! On behalf of Mrs. Karko and all the school staff wish them a very safe and blessed Christmas. School reopens on Tuesday, January 3rd.

On Thursday, Dec 22nd, your children can wear red, green or Christmas- themed clothing that day as part of the Student Social Awareness Committee planned activities. (Clothing must be appropriate for both school and church and may not contain any offensive words or pictures. Boots may be worn but no heels or slip on (backless) shoes.)

Winter Wonderland Snowball Social

Remedy for the Winter Blues?

The SJS Fathers' Club presents "Winter Wonderland -A Snowball Social", a fun-filled night of music and dancing for the whole family to be held on:

Santa's Secret Workshop

Ho Ho Ho - Thank You, Thank You, Thank you!

Many thanks to all of Santa's Elves for all their hard work at this year's Santa's Secret Workshop! Along with Santa's Top Elf, Amy Meyerl, it would not be possible without them!

Also, thanks go out to the committee for this year's Lunch with Santa! Chris Archacki, Kathi Trimble, Julia Ellis, Beth Harry, Endya Nankishore, Andrea & Michael Schermerhorn, Sue Murray, Paula Fiorucci, Stacy Tyler and Erin Dilorio helped to pull together another fun event for the SJS families!

Don't Forget

Teacher gift contribution

We encourage all families to participate in the voluntary contributions for teachers presents in lieu of the individual gifts for teachers at Christmas. If you are interested in participating, please send $5 to Dan Gallagher.

Dates to Remember

Tuesday, December 20 - Arby's Day
Thursday, December 22 - Noon Dismissal
Tuesday, December 27 - Ice Skating at Ice World
Tuesday, January 3 - Classes Resume; Chick-Fil-A Day

Save the Date

Mrs. Sutton, the Parish Office Administrator asks that we please help with the mailing of the Chicken Dinner information. Please SAVE THE DATES of January 20th and 24 in the morning from 8:00 to 10:00. More details to follow.

Sincerely,

Tamara Ryerson
President
St. Joseph Home & School Association
