

2018 Summer Bible School Volunteers Needed

Current 5th graders (entering 6th grade in the Fall) through adults

Monday, June 25th to Friday, June 29th, 9:00am – 12:00pm

The number of volunteers we are able to accept is limited. We will be accepting volunteers on a first come/first served basis. Before volunteering please review the following expectations and make sure you are able to fulfill all of the requirements in order to be a summer bible school volunteer.

Expectations of a Volunteer

- Volunteers must be available for the entire week (Monday-Friday).
 - Classroom volunteers need to arrive by 8:45am
 - Volunteers are expected to stay for the entire day, this means they will be dismissed at 12:15pm. Craft and Refreshment volunteers are expected to sit in the closing assembly with the children. No one is permitted to leave before the conclusion of the assembly each day.
 - Youth Volunteers: Cell phones must be turned in each morning when you check-in at your volunteer area. They will be returned to you before you are dismissed at 12:00pm. We are all here to help the children, cell phones, ipods, and all other electronics may not be used during summer bible school time.
 - Volunteers 14 years old - adult must have the current Youth Protection training before bible school week begins.
