Woffpack Weekly

What's Coming Up @SJS-Fullerton!

From the Principal's Desk

Another wonderful week at SJS! We welcomed Father Jesse back to campus after his hip replacement, and we were so happy to have him join us outside for the Red Ribbon Parade. Speaking of which, it was AMAZING! It is such a unique tradition here, and this year's creativity and themes were so impressive!

Conference Day today was a success, and we appreciate all of the positive communication and collaboration in order for your child(ren) to be as successful as possible. We are thankful that Mrs. Mallonee was able to meet with some of you during the math conferences as well. She will begin her classes tomorrow 11/2/23, so please look for a letter from her coming home with your child this week.

Tomorrow is All Souls' Day, an important day in our Catholic Faith where we commemorate all of our faithfully departed. In our efforts to honor and respect those souls, Fr. Felix will lead our 4th to 8th graders in a short prayer service in the cemetery tomorrow.

It is hard to believe that it is already November! As this month brings us to pause and give thanks, may we move forward with hearts full of gratitude for our friends, family, faith, and the entire St. Joseph School and Parish community.
